

Discussion Guide

Book of Jesus Christ - Max Gio

Use these questions for personal reflection, a family conversation, or a small group. You do not need to answer every question. Choose the ones that lead to honest, useful discussion.

1. His mission and teachings

- 1 Which part of Jesus' mission in the Gospels is easiest for you to admire? Which part asks the most of you?
- 2 What teaching of Jesus has become so familiar that you may no longer hear how demanding it is?
- 3 Where do truth and mercy need to be held together in your life right now?
- 4 What would change this week if following Christ mattered more than appearing religious?

2. Love, mercy, and the people Jesus noticed

- 1 Who is easiest for you to call a neighbor? Who is hardest?
- 2 Is there a difference between forgiving someone and returning to an unsafe relationship? What might healthy boundaries look like?
- 3 Who tends to become invisible in your family, workplace, church, or community?
- 4 What is one quiet act of service you could do without needing recognition?

3. Wisdom, relationships, and values

- 1 When you pray for guidance, how do you make room for an answer that may correct you?
- 2 Which close relationship most tests your patience, honesty, or willingness to apologize?
- 3 What does your use of time and money reveal about what you value most?
- 4 Where could stewardship change the way you think about success?

4. Our times, the internet, and spiritual well-being

- 1 What kinds of news or online content make you more fearful, angry, or certain before you have checked the facts?
- 2 How can a Christian stay watchful without becoming consumed by prediction or catastrophe?
- 3 What would change if you paused before sharing a viral clip and checked the original source first?
- 4 What does hope look like when circumstances remain difficult?

Group-use suggestion

- Read one short Gospel passage first.
- Choose two or three questions rather than rushing through all of them.
- Leave room for disagreement without humiliation.
- End by naming one practical action each person can take during the coming week.

bookofjesuschrist.com - Offered for reflection and discussion. It is not an official denominational resource.